ILC Social Media

- Social media is a great tool you can use to share your experience at ILC!
- Always be cognizant of the content you're posting: be a good representative of MN HOSA
- Tag @minnesotahosa in your instagram content!

HOSA-FHP App

This year, we have a brand new app for ILC! On it, you can easily access the agenda, event information, maps, announcements, the executive council, and more! This will be your go-to resource at this conference, so go to the app store and download it today!

Ken's Map

During ILC, there is no food provided at the convention center. It is your responsibility to accommodate meals in your schedule.

Luckily, our 2023-2024 Activities Coordinator, Ken Pham, has created a map for your use at ILC! Here, you can find a plethora of restaurants, hotels, and shopping centers located near the convention center.

Please take advantage of this excellent resource!

HOSA ILC CODE OF CONDUCT

A good reputation enables members to take pride in their organization. HOSA members have an excellent reputation. Your conduct at any HOSA function should make a positive contribution to the reputation already established.

1. Your behavior at all times should be such that it reflects credit to you, your school/college, your state/country and HOSA. Members shall refrain from using inappropriate or profane language at all times. Members shall refrain from verbal, physical or sexual harassment, hazing or name-calling.
2. Members conduct is the responsibility of the local chapter advisor or chaperone. Members shall keep their advisors informed of their activities and whereabouts at all times.
3. HOSA Conference name badges shall be worn at all times at HOSA functions. You are expected to attend all general sessions and other scheduled conference activities. Please be prompt and show respect to those in the audience and on stage.
4. Members are to report any accidents, injuries or illnesses to their local chapter or state advisor immediately.
5. Members are expected to observe the designated curfew. (Curfew means that each person must be in their room by the designated hour.)
6. If a member is responsible for stealing or vandalism, the member and his/her parents will be expected to pay any and all damages.
7. Members/participants attending the International Leadership Conference may not purchase, consume or be under the influence of alcohol or drugs at any time. Violators will be subject to stringent disciplinary action.
8. The International Leadership Conference is a non-smoking conference.
9. Members who disregard the rules will be subject to disciplinary action and will be sent home at their own expense. Parents will be notified.
10. Any long distance phone calls, charges to the room, etc. will be the responsibility of the individual member and/or parents.
11. Members are to abide by the ILC Attire Policy at all business sessions, general sessions, competitive events and other conference activities.
12. As a delegate to the International Leadership Conference, permission is granted to make photographs, videotapes, broadcasts, and/or sound recordings, separately or in combination, available for reproduction for educational and promotional purposes by HOSA, Inc.
13. For Competitive Events — All work must be your own, created and completed by you alone (or with your event team). Plagiarism, copyright violation, cheating, and falsification of information are prohibited. Any attempt to gain an unfair advantage will not be tolerated. Any time outside sources are used for a project, the required Reference page (as listed in applicable event guidelines) must be completed. Competitors at ILC understand and agree to abide by the HOSA Honor Code.

GENERAL SESSION PROTOCOL: The general sessions should be enthusiastic but delegates must not be rude or obnoxious to those in the audience or on stage. It is important to remain seated until the end of the session. States that do not adhere to general session protocol will be asked to send a representative to a special meeting of the HOSA Executive Council.

Please occupy ALL seats at the Opening Session. Leave no empty seats as this means other HOSA members will not be able to enjoy the Opening Session. Your cooperation is appreciated and essential due to limited seating.
